THE BLUES ROCK SENSATION FROM THE NETHERLANDS. NEW ALBUM.

ROB ORLEMANS & HALF PAST MIDNIGHT – “SHAKE THEM DOWN”

Blues-rock power trio Rob Orlemans & Half Past Midnight inspired fans around the world with enthusiasm and loyalty through their explosive live performances and exceptional musicianship. The band is a frequent headliner at blues festivals across Europe and has earned a growing audience with their live performances in the US, Europe and at home in the Netherlands.

Rob Orlemans toured for years with the legendary Curtis Knight, mentor of Jimi Hendrix, and they recorded several together albums on.

Rob Orlemans is an innovative and entertaining left-handed guitarist, steeped in guitar knowledge and with a dynamic, exciting guitar style and sound.

Rob has led the band to a remarkable international breakthrough in recent years. Half Past Midnight's incredible rhythm section, consisting of super drummer Ernst van Ee and Piet Tromp, a great bass player, provides a powerful yet fluid foundation for Rob's guitar fireworks.

The new album contains 12 tracks, including 1 cover by Alvin Lee. In addition, there are two extra unique bonus live tracks, including one with legend Michael Katon!
