

Oldham RLFC would like to invite applications for the position of Head Coach ahead of the 2024 Season.

This is currently a part-time position that will report directly to the Managing Director.

For the right candidate, this presents an exciting opportunity to join an ambitious and progressive club and to work with a forward-thinking board of directors.

The ideal candidate will:

- Hold a Level 3 coaching qualification (or Australian / New Zealand equivalent) and demonstrate a successful rugby league coaching track record at a high level Demonstrate a strong coaching philosophy and vision for the club
- Be able to build a high-level environment and culture and possess excellent leadership and management skills
- Have excellent analytical, planning, evaluation, and delivery skills in respect of training and match day activities
- Have the ability to think creatively and differently
- Be able to represent the club at all levels, including with the press and media, whilst always projecting a professional and positive image of the club
- Also be committed to the personal development of individual players and coaching staff

For the successful candidate, salary is negotiable and dependent on experience. To apply for the position, please submit an up-to-date CV together with a covering letter, detailing how you believe your experience, personal skills and attributes fit the role.

Applications or informal / confidential enquiries should be made to Managing Director, Mike Ford at mike.ford@roughyeds.co.uk.

Please note that Oldham RLFC is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all individuals irrespective of age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, race, religion, or beliefs.