EXHIBITION OVERVIEW

DINOSAURS REVEALED: JOURNEY ACROSS AMERICA

Your guests will travel back 252 million years as this exhibition reveals dinosaurs that inhabited what is now North America. They will dig deep into life during the Triassic, Jurassic and Cretaceous periods. This hands-on trek will bring them face-to-face with 26 life-size dinosaurs. See them move, hear them roar and experience their complexity and vast diversity. Also included are two massive full body skeletons, real fossils and a hands-on dig to discover new evidence.

Also included are latest dinosaur discoveries that will change the way audiences think about these remarkable creatures.

Guests will walk through the most prolific North American dinosaur dig sites and learn what it takes to reveal and recover fossilized remains. They will also interact with a 3D augmented reality volcano, dinosaur tracks, puzzles and more.

This adventure for all ages educates, fascinates and excites imaginations.

The exhibition was produced by Union Station Kansas City in partnership with the Kansas University Paleontology Department and Science City, USKC to ensure complete scientific accuracy for all aspects of this exhibition.

'This is the first time I've ever seen feathered dinosaurs depicted. I really appreciate that our understanding of dinosaurs is evolving!'

'My family thought it was really cool. Our son wants to be a paleontologist when he grows up. Thanks for putting together such an impressive educational experience suitable for all ages!'
