

La otra isla (The Other Island)

Collective Exhibition of Contemporary
Cuban Artists

Curated by: Yissel Arce Padrón

The exhibition is composed by 20 works in different formats such as photography, painting, graphics, installation and video, 3 of them produced specifically for the project.

The Other Island is a multiplatform project that tells the stories of visual artist communities working in Cuba focusing on how they navigate political and social constraints in the island. It is comprised of a film documentary, a docuweb, a public program and this artistic exhibition.

Project developed with the support of
Open Society Foundations
